Dear Wayne:

The bear hunt in Ontario was simply great!

You might be thinking I'm saying this only because I busted a big black bear behind his bosom with a Bear Claw bullet fired from "Layne's Bear-Buster" before bedtime but this is not the case.

Had I not even seen a bruin during my hunt with you I still would have enjoyed the trip. Well, truth is, I wouldn't have enjoyed it as much but just being in that magnificent country, breathing the clean air, sleeping on the bank of Lake McKay, and eating my own cooking was well worth the trip.

I never recommend a hunting guide or outfitter unless his operation is 100 percent in all respects. I'd recommend you at the drop of a bottle of Pro-Cover and intend doing just that at every opportunity.

Now all we've got left to do is turn loose the hounds in Maine someday, listen to a good race, and perhaps handgun whatever it is they're chasing.

Good luck and stay on touch.

Best regards,
